SOMETHING BIG IS ON ITS WAY

COMING SOON - SOMETHING TO SATISFY
CRIPS LOVERS AND STOCKISTS EVERYWHERE

WHAT ON EARTH CAN IT BE? Stay Alert

SPECIALITY & FINE FOOD FAIR HARROGATE... WE LOVED...

You know us, never happier than when we're surrounded by gourmet delights. And they don't come more delightful than  HOLDSWORTH CHOCOLATES Mouth-watering loveliness, in equally tasty new packaging. (Interestingly, MD David's refined palate is also rather partial to CRIPS Cheese & Onion.) We saw our friends at  PIPERS again. In our opinion these traditional, fried potato chips are amongst the very best. Finally,  CHAIN BRIDGE HONEY FARM They say this is a bad year for bees. Not from where we were standing. Francis Robson was generating a real buzz (sorry!) around her Tweedside honey.

BUT IS IT ART?

We're in the cafés of the Tate Galleries! But don't you think our packaging would look equally good next to an Old Master? What about hanging next to Francis (smokey) Bacon or tempting Hirst's Shark? Come on you arty types contact Wendy at info@crispnacks.com with your ideas on where you'd like to display us. Prizes for the most surreal.

WE LOVE TO HEAR FROM YOU...

A big thanks to everyone who has contacted us. Each issue we feature a comment that particularly grabs us.

Is there something addictive in S&V crisps? I ask this question as I tried with all my might to walk past them in my local farm shop and couldn't. I am drawn to their salty vinegaryness, and like the lady who ate 3 packs. I could have carried on... I LOVE them!!
Andrea Hardy

Andrea, we dedicate notes from Richard's kitchen to you...
